

PANELIST

Christina Andaya

Born and raised in South Etobicoke, Christina Arcena Andaya (she/her/elle) is the MS-Fighting Beauty Queen battling MS for the past seven years. She competed in pageants like World's Perfect Pageant and Miss Galaxy Canada where she brought her fighting spirit to each competition like her daily battles with MS. Christina recently graduated from York University in 2023 for completed the Master of Arts in the Graduate Program of Sociology. She is also a Social Media Marketing Specialist who brings her holistic, creative energy and detailed-oriented research skills to each project (specializing in content creation, live event coverage and video editing).

Outside of her work, Christina's passion is to help others and involved in her local community. She is one of the Co-Founders of the Asian Resilience Collective Canada (ARCC) an organization aiming to promote Asian-Canadian civic participation through advocacy, events, networking, and mentorship.